A NAVAL HERO REMEMBERED.

WASHINGTON, Sept 21—An incident of conspicuous gallantry and benefit to the Federal cause in the late war was recalled by the introduction of a bill yesterday by Representative C.W. Stone to may for Rear Admiral John Russell, retired, the highest pay of his rank, to take effect from the date of his retirement.

On the night of Seit, It, 1861, Russell, then a Heistenant in the navy, organized a force of 100 men and destroyed the rebel cruiser Juduh manned, armed and equipped and moored at the Pensacola Navy-Yard.

The destroying party marched in the face of over a thousand sodders in the yard and of several batteries, and twenty of them were killed or wounded, including the lace.

but it is infortunate that he should be backed by men who wish to tear the foundation principles from beneath the structure.

R. M. J. Reed, of Philadelphia, is mentioned in connection with the Commander's station. Mr. Reed is very popular in the Quaker City and has many friends throughout the country, being well versed in fraternal insurance. He is one of the leading men in numerous patriotic societies, and is a leader in the Supreme Body of the Sons of Veterans. He is a war veteran. He was the Grand Marshal of the parade held in Philadelphia in honor of the return of the body of Sailor Riggin, who was murdered in Chill. His chances are good as he has a strong hold on many of the Pennsylvania delegation.

James W. Streeton. at present the Very Eminent Good Prior of the State of New York, has a large following. He is a resident of Brooklya and has many friends.

The name of William Burkett, or Brooklya, has also been suggested. He leads in popularity among his companions of New York State. There is no doubt that should Mr. Burkett come out openly as a candidate he would say men and the state.

He represents a line of substantial policy that is unimpeachable. While Mr. Burkett has not come out as a candidate, he says that he never told any one that he was not in the race.

The aleigates realize the necessity of changing the complexion of the present Executive Board. Every name presented to the convocation will be thory oughly investigated. nerve remedy, and if you say it don't beip you you need not pay for it."

"I took two botties of this medicine, and found so much relief that I bought two more bottles, and now I am wonderfully improved in health and strength. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy did it. I can heartly and truthfully recommend it to the sick. Too much cannot be said in praise of this splendid medicine.

"I say this for the good of other sufferers from nervous and prostrating diseases who can be cured by this remedy.
